White Earth Tribal and Community College

The White Earth Tribal and Community College is seeking interested members to serve on their Council of Trustees and has one (1) vacancy from the following category:

- Community At-Large Trustee
  - An Individual who is chosen at large from the community

The Council of the College is comprised of nine (9) members, seven (7) voting members and two (2) non-voting members. At least six (6) of the members of whom will be enrolled members or lineal descendant of the White Earth Reservation. Enrolled members of another federally recognized tribe and/or from the community at large possessing special skills and/or abilities that would benefit the College may hold the remaining position.

Summary: The White Earth Tribal and Community College Council of Trustees serves as a body of official policy making representatives of and for the White Earth Tribal and Community College.

The Council is responsible for policies and procedures required for effective governance, administration, implementation and evaluation of programs, resources, faculty, staff, budget, services and other operations of the White Earth Tribal and Community College.

The service term for a Trustee is a three-year commitment with regular monthly meetings. The position is strictly on a volunteer basis; however, meals and mileage are provided as appropriate.
