Boozhoo! (Hello!) Welcome to the White Earth Tribal & Community College (WETCC, “College”). At WETCC we believe our employees are our greatest resource and we want to do all we can to provide the training and tools needed to successfully perform the job duties assigned.

We practice fair and consistent application of these policies in decision making, either in the selection of new employees or in those cases where employee discipline is needed.

We have set up a structure that provides for conflict resolution, employee evaluation, advancement, and continued training opportunities.

We encourage open communication between employees and their supervisors to identify and correct issues as they arise. We expect the very best from our employees. The Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct Policies can be found later in this Employee Handbook.
The College’s Policies are based upon the Seven Grandfather Teachings of the Anishinaabeg which serve as the values of the college:

Debwewin (Truth)

The literal translation of this word is the sound of your heart. Each of us holds the truth in our heart and when we live the value of debwewin, we express that truth in everything we do.

Zoongide’ewin (Courage/Bravery)

The literal translation of the word is strong heart. When we have a strong heart, we are able to face challenges with courage and integrity. A person living the value of zoongide’ewin acknowledges her own weaknesses and faces them with a strong heart.

Manaaji’idiwin (Respect)

When we live the value of manaaji’idiwin we give respect to each other. In the Anishinaabe worldview, everything has a spirit and therefore deserves respect. This concept is included in this word.

Gwayakwaadiziwin (Honesty)

The literal translation of this word is to be correct or straight in everything that we do. If some individual lives the value of gwayakwaadiziwin, she must do what is right for the group and hold herself and others to high standards of integrity.

Zaagi’idiwin (Love)

If we act out of love for each other and ourselves in everything we do, we are living the value of zaagi’idiwin.

Nibwaakaawin (Wisdom)

The literal translation of this word is an abundance of wisdom. When we live the value of nibwaakaawin, we seek to learn all that we can in a respectful manner and take the time to reflect upon our teachings.

Dabasendizowin (Humility)

When we live the values of debwewin, zoongide’ewin, manaaji’idiwin, gwayakwaadiziwin, zaagi’idiwin, and nibwaakaawin we can hold ourselves in low regard as this word indicates without having low self-esteem. We understand that we are humble beings and conduct ourselves accordingly.
ABOUT WETCC

White Earth Tribal and Community College (WETCC) was established on September 8, 1997 by the White Earth Tribal Council as per Tribal Resolution #038-97-005. On October 7, 1997 in a two-room humble building in downtown Mahnomen, Minnesota the White Earth Tribal and Community College opened its doors to 40 tribal students. WETCC continued to grow over the years and as additional classes were added, various buildings in downtown Mahnomen were used to house classrooms.

Established as a not-for-profit tribally controlled educational institution of higher learning, the first Charter was approved on February 5, 1998 “...to provide adult education and post-secondary educational services to enrolled members of the White Earth Reservation and to other eligible Indians and non-Indian residents of the area...”

The first graduation was held on May 25, 2000 for students who completed certificate programs. Official non-profit 501(c)3 status was obtained in 2000 and by 2001 four-hundred and sixty-three students had already been enrolled in degree and certificate granting programs.

Initial Candidacy for Accreditation by Higher Learning Commission was granted on October 14, 2004 with full accreditation granted on October 8, 2008. In 2010 Phase I construction was completed at 2250 College Road, the Drum Hall was added in 2012 and the location continued to grow through 2016 when construction phase III was completed and all students, faculty, and staff were finally located on one campus, greatly enhancing the ability of faculty and staff to serve students.

WETCC is governed by an independent Council of Trustees (COT) who abide by their approved Bylaws. The COT consists of 7 voting members and 2 non-voting members who represent the collective voice of the community as it translates needs and expectations into the policies of the College. The COT provides direction to the President of the College regarding policy, procedures, initiatives, expectations, reporting, data, and information. The COT approves the personnel management system including these policies. Decisions of the COT are final.

PURPOSE OF EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

It is the purpose of this White Earth Tribal and Community College (WETCC, College) Employee Handbook (Handbook) is to provide employees a guide and resource to the approved policies and procedures regarding employment and personnel issues. The policies and procedures contained in this Employee Handbook are abbreviated from the official policies and/or procedures of WETCC which can be found on the internal SharePoint in their entirety. All employees will be provided access to SharePoint upon employment. Official policies and procedures should be referenced for more detailed information than what is contained in this Employee Handbook.

The WETCC Employee Handbook is intended to provide information to employees and allow for fair and consistent treatment and consistency with the Seven Grandfather Teachings and Mission of the College.

This Handbook supersedes any prior policies or past practices. WETCC employees are expected to conform to the policies and procedures upon receipt.

This Handbook and its contents, statements, and positions are not intended to create a contract between WETCC and any of its employees. All contracts will be separate from this Handbook.

The Human Resources (HR) Department, upon approval from the President, may make clerical changes within the Policy manual. The clerical changes shall by no means change the intent of the policies or procedures of the Policy Manual. The HR Department will review these policies each year in February for changes or updates and will submit them to the Staff Senate and President's Cabinet for review; any changes or updates must be submitted to the Council of Trustees (COT) who have the authority for final policy approval.

The terms of this Handbook are implemented and applied at the sole discretion of the WETCC COT or its representatives and may be modified or overridden in a specific instance by the President in consultation with the COT. The COT may modify, amend, change, or rescind the policies in this manual; and may do so at any time with or without prior notice. Any modifications or amendments to the policies will be communicated to all employees by the HR Department.

Certain aspects of the Employee Handbook may not apply to contract employees such as Faculty. Please consult the HR department for any questions.

If traveling away from your regular work location for more than 10 hours, reimbursement for travel expenses will be allowed by following the Travel Policy. WETCC participates in the White Earth Reservation’s Workers’ Compensation Plan, therefore employees who are injured on the job are subject to an alcohol and drug test within eight (8) hours of the injury. The purpose of the plan is to provide compensation and medical benefits for an employee who sustains a work-related injury.

Supervisory personnel will promptly complete the Supervisor’s Report of Injury Form and submit it to the HR department. The Supervisor should refer to the Post Accident Drug Testing Policy immediately.

BENEFITS

ANNUAL LEAVE

(Annual leave policy #300.18)

Annual leave benefits are granted to full-time, permanent employees to allow for rest and recreation time free from regular work duties. Employees are asked to plan in advance and request annual leave time from their supervisor who must determine work demands when considering the request.

Annual leave is accrued from the first day of employment and is as follows based on 40 hours of work per week: Employees who work less than 40 hours a week are based on a prorated amount.

- 4 hours per pay period through the first 2 years of employment
- 6 hours per pay period for the 3rd through 6th year of employment
- 8 hours per pay period for the 7th through the 10th year of employment
- 10 hours per pay period for 11 or more years of employment

Annual leave can be requested in increments of one-quarter (1/4) hours and should be approved in advance by the immediate supervisor whenever possible.

All annual leave balances must not exceed 160 hours on December 31st of each year and are paid out to an employee when they leave WETCC employment (up to the maximum 160 hours).

SICK LEAVE

(Sick leave policy #300.23)

Unfortunately, there will be times when an employee cannot report to work due to an illness. To help support employees through times of illness, sick leave benefits are granted to all full-time, permanent employees. Sick leave benefits begin accruing upon hire at the rate of four (4) hours per pay period and may be used after working one full pay period. There is no maximum to the amount of sick leave an employee may accumulate.

Sick leave can be used for your own illness or to attend medical appointments. Sick leave can also be used to attend to the illness of an immediate family member or assist with their medical appointments. If you need to use sick leave, notice is required to your immediate supervisor as soon as possible to ensure we minimize disruptions in the workplace.

Your supervisor may require a doctor’s statement supporting the need to use sick leave. An employee who misses three consecutive days of work due to an illness will be required to provide a doctor’s statement supporting the absence and a release to return to work.

Sick leave benefits can be requested in increments of one-quarter (1/4) hours. Sick leave benefits are not paid out when an employee leaves employment.

During the time of an approved LOA, WETCC will continue to pay regular employee benefits, but the employee must continue their payments as well to avoid cancelation. During an extended LOA, the employee is responsible for paying the full costs of benefits.

Every effort will be made to return an employee to their same or similar job upon return from an approved LOA, but under some circumstances staffing requirements may change.

All newly hired or reclassified employees are subject to a 90-day probationary period during which time extra supervision and/or coaching are provided in an attempt to learn about the new job responsibilities. Your supervisor will complete a performance review form at the completion of your probationary period to provide feedback on job performance.

Probationary periods may be instituted by the supervisor in an effort to turn around a performance problem, in this case a performance review form will be completed at the beginning and conclusion of the probationary period.

Employees who fail to demonstrate satisfactory job performance during a probationary period may be dismissed at any time. An employee who is terminated during a probationary period is not eligible to file an appeal or grievance over the decision.

(Employment Classification policy #300.12)

Employees who are scheduled to work 32-hours or more per week on a regular basis are classified as full-time. Part-time employees may be scheduled for inconsistent number of hours per week, less than 32-hours on a regular basis.

Employees who are hired to work for pre-determined amount of time that is usually less than 6-months are classified as temporary. Permanent (also referred to as “regular”) employees are hired for an unspecified period of time.

Clothing that works well for the beach, yard work or dance clubs is not appropriate for work, as well as clothing that reveals too much cleavage, back, chest, stomach, underwear, or contains offensive words/pictures. An employee who reports to work with inappropriate clothing will be sent home to correct the issue.

(Outside employment policy #300.05)

Employees who accept employment outside of WETCC, including self-employment, must make full disclosure to their supervisor in writing, including any potential conflicts with WETCC employment. Secondary employment must not interfere with work hours or the ability to perform assigned job duties at WETCC.
The Supervisor will review the request; WETCC reserves the right to grant or deny permission to any employee wishing to simultaneously accept employment elsewhere or become self-employed.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST
(Conflict of interest policy #300.34)
Any staff member who has a significant financial, personal, or professional interest that could potentially cause a conflict of interest (real or perceived) involving the College shall disclose in writing to their immediate supervisor the precise nature of their interest. Financial interests and affiliations, whether professional or personal, must be disclosed.
Individuals with a conflict of interest are asked to refrain from participating in the College’s consideration of a proposed transaction where a conflict of interest applies. NEPOTISM AND CRONYISM
(Nepotism and Cronyism Policy #300.35)
To avoid the appearance of, or the potential for nepotism (a practice among those with power or influence of favoring relatives or friends in the workplace by preferential treatment), WETCC prohibits the hiring or employment of relatives or close friends whether the situation creates a real or perceived conflict of interest. In addition, WETCC prohibits consensual relationships between a supervisor and employee.
Supervisors must recuse themselves from handling matters where nepotism or cronyism may be a factor.
CONSENSUAL RELATIONSHIPS
(Consensual Relationship Policy #300.36)
A consensual relationship is defined as a romantic or sexual relationship between two employees or between an instructor and a student.

Employees are responsible for reporting to their immediate supervisor the existence of a consensual relationship when a supervisor/employee or instructor/student consensual relationship exists. Supervisors are responsible to recuse themselves from handling matters where a personal consensual relationship of their own may be a factor. The Academic Dean will have an accompanying policy addressing instructor/student relationships.

COUNCIL OF TRUSTEES (COT)
(Council of Trustee Activity Policy #100.03)
To avoid a conflict of interest, in accordance with the COT by-laws, no employee is allowed to hold a seat on the COT. WETCC recognizes the importance of the Fair Use Doctrine and its responsibility to provide information and guidance in support of teaching and learning.
Fair Use Doctrine Section 107 of the copyright law allows fair use of copyrighted materials. There are four criteria, all of which must be considered in determining fair use:

1. The purpose and character of the use, including whether such use is of a commercial nature or is for nonprofit educational purposes,
2. The nature of copyrighted work,
3. Amount and substantiality of the portion used in relation to copyrighted work as a whole, and
4. The effect of the use upon the potential market for or value of the copyrighted work.

The WETCC Librarian serves as the Copyright Officer. The Copyright Officer will exercise general oversight of the WETCC and will ensure that information and guidelines are available via the WETCC website. The Copyright Officer will also serve as the final authority for denials of requests to duplicate or transmit copyrighted materials.

In addition to the regulations contained in this Employee Handbook and the actual Policies of WETCC, the following are examples of unacceptable personal codes of conduct that may result in disciplinary action; the list is not inclusive but serves to provide examples of unacceptable behavior; WETCC reserves the right to determine whether any actions warrant disciplinary action up to and including termination, as determined by the Supervisor:

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

(Sexual Harassment Policy #300.32 and Title IX Policy 300.55)

WETCC's commitment to equal opportunity includes an assurance that employees will have an environment conducive to working and as a result, sexual harassment is prohibited.

Sexual Harassment can include sexual harassment or unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature. However, harassment does not have to be of a sexual nature and can include offensive remarks about a person's sex. For example, it is against our policy to harass a man/woman by making offensive comments about men/women in general.

Both the victim and the harasser can be either a woman or a man, and the victim and harasser can be the same or opposite sex.

Although simple teasing, offhand comments, or isolated incidents that are not very serious are common, harassment is illegal when it is so frequent or severe that it creates a hostile or offensive work environment, or when it results in an adverse employment decision (such as the victim being fired or demoted).

The harasser can be anyone who displays unwelcome sexual advances, verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature.

Though sexual harassment encompasses a wide range of conduct, some examples of specifically prohibited conduct include the following:
• unwelcome sexual advances,
• propositions or other sexual comments,
• sexually oriented gestures, noises, remarks, jokes or other comments about a person’s sexuality or sexual experience,
• preferential treatment or promises of preferential treatment to an employee for submitting to sexual conduct, including soliciting or attempting to solicit any employee to engage in sexual activity for compensation or reward,
• subjecting, or threats of subjecting, someone to unwelcome sexual attention or conduct.

The Human Resources Tech serves as the Title IX Coordinator, in the absence of the HR Tech the Special Projects Director serves as the Title IX Coordinator, and has been delegated the responsibility to coordinate compliance under Title IX of the Education Amendments which prohibit sex discrimination in educational programs and activities.

Any employee concerned with violations of this policy may request assistance from the Title IX Coordinator.

Any employee who becomes aware of a sexual harassment situation involving another employee is responsible to communicate the sexual harassment to the Title IX Coordinator.

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for receiving all complaints and completing an investigation. All employees are responsible for participating in the investigation process when appropriate.

WETCC takes seriously any allegations of sexual harassment and will investigate all such charges promptly based upon alleged conduct and the degree of seriousness of the harassment. An employee found guilty of sexual harassment will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Retaliation for the report of a sexual harassment claim is strictly prohibited.

TITLE IX

(Title IX Policy #300.55)

Title IX is a federal civil rights law requiring “no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.” Title IX applies to prospective students, current students, and all staff of WETCC.

The Human Resources department serves as the Title IX Coordinator and will respond to a policy violation in accordance with the procedures outlined in the policy. The Academic Dean serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator.

Title IX includes any unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that is deemed severe or pervasive. A victim who is subject to a Title IX violation has specific rights to be protected. Complaints that fall within a Title IX violation are very serious and upon investigation a hearing may be required. An individual accused of violating Title IX also has specific rights in the policy to be informed of the investigation and involved with any hearings that may be held.

WETCC will conduct ongoing prevention, awareness, and training programs for both students and staff to promote ongoing awareness and prevention of Title IX violations. All students and staff are required to attend at least one annual in-service on Title IX. Any individual with knowledge or information concerning a policy violation is required to report the situation to the Title IX Coordinator.

HARASSMENT OR BULLYING IN THE WORKPLACE POLICY

(Harassment or Bullying in the Workplace Policy #300.31)

Bullying is unwelcome or unreasonable behavior that demeans, intimidates, or humiliates people either as individuals or as a group. Harassment can include comments, statements, or actions that have the effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

WETCC prohibits bullying and harassment whether it is: 1) verbal communication, 2) manipulating the work environment, 3) psychological manipulation, and/or 4) harassment.

All employees are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner at WETCC. Any complaints of harassment or bullying should be addressed with the HR department and may constitute a Title IX violation.

CORRECTIVE ACTIONS

(Corrective actions policy #300.29)

Unfortunately, it may become necessary when an employee’s behavior or conduct does not meet expectations, or is in violation of WETCC policy, some degree of disciplinary action is warranted. The goal, whenever possible, is to improve performance and resolve problems as opposed to issuing punishment.

The degree of discipline shall be directly related to the seriousness of the offense, the employee’s employment record, and established practices of WETCC. There is no sequence of steps to take for disciplinary action, any action shall be decided on an individual basis.

Supervisory options when considering disciplinary actions include:

- Informal discussion and problem-solving between the supervisor and the employee, or
- A Verbal Warning can be issued to inform the employee that disciplinary action will be forthcoming if the behavior/action continues; the Supervisor should document the date and nature of the Verbal Warning and submit the information to Human Resources for placement in the personnel file, or
- A Written Reprimand can be issued by the supervisor explicitly detailing the problem(s), expected outcome, and consequences of repeated behavior, or
- A Suspension Without Pay
  - can be issued for an employee to remain home for a specified number of days without pay and consider their employment at WETCC to determine if they are willing/able to comply and remain employed; the Supervisor should meet with the employee upon their return to work; or
  - an exempt employee must be given time off in increments of full work week; or
  - can be issued while an investigation is being conducted; or
- Dismissal of Employment can be used whenever an offense is serious or other steps at correcting the behavior have been unsuccessful.
Any notice of disciplinary action shall include the process for the employee to appeal (also known as grievance).

COMPLAINT AND GRIEVANCE (ALSO KNOWN AS APPEAL) PROCESS

(Complaint and grievance policy #300.33)

Most issues can be resolved through informal processes such as speaking with the other individual and sharing your concerns. WETCC strongly encourages all employees to have open communication to bring problems or concerns forward. Open communication can often resolve perceived problems in a timely manner.

If, however, you feel open communication has not resolved your problem/concern, or is not appropriate for your particular situation, a policy has been established to provide a clear, orderly, and expedient process through which an employee may process a bona fide complaint or grievance (also known as an appeal). A complaint may be necessary if an employee has not been able to get a matter resolved by informal means. A grievance (or appeal) is allowed when an employee disagrees with some form of action taken against them in which they feel a policy or right has been violated.

Both complaints and grievances (or appeals) follow the same process. Employees must file a written complaint/grievance following the chain of command within 5 working days of an incident. Once the supervisor or appropriate designee in the chain of command has the information, an investigation will take place and a response provided in writing within 5 working days. If the employee is not satisfied with the response, they may file with the next person in the chain of command. The WETCC President will be the final authority on complaints or grievances (including appeals) unless the complaint/grievance is against the President, in which case the matter will be referred to the COT Chairperson. The COT’s decision will stand as final.

Due to the sensitive nature of sexual harassment claims, a complaint of sexual harassment will not follow the chain of command and should be submitted directly to the Human Resources Tech who serves as the WETCC Title IX Coordinator.

Under no circumstances will WETCC allow retaliatory measures towards an employee who has filed a complaint or grievance. Any allegations of retaliation should be addressed immediately through this process.

The Human Resources department is available to assist with guidance and policy advice at any step of the complaint/grievance process.

LEAVING EMPLOYMENT

VOLUNTARILY LEAVING EMPLOYMENT

(Voluntarily leaving employment policy #300.37)

An employee who plans to resign or retire is asked to give at least a two-week written notice to their supervisor to allow for proper planning and staffing within the department. Upon notification, the Human Resources department will ensure that the final payroll check is processed in accordance with WETCC policies and procedures. The HR department will also ensure you are aware of your rights to continue employee benefits.

An employee who does not give at least a two-week written notice will be deemed to quit their employment. An employee who does not report to work or make contact with their supervisor for 3 or more consecutive scheduled workdays will also be deemed to have voluntarily quit.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

(Termination of employment policy #300.38)

Unfortunately, in certain circumstances WETCC will determine whether termination of employment is necessary. Common reasons this may occur include:

For Cause:
- Termination due to unsatisfactory performance.
- Unsuccessful completion of the initial probationary period.
- Misconduct includes a violation of the Employee Handbook, policies, procedures, or departmental rules and regulations.
- Inability to perform duties.

Not for Cause:
- Lay off or reduction in workforce.
- At will employment termination.
- Death of an employee.

In the event of a termination of employment, the employee will be notified in writing of the decision. Employees who are terminated for cause will also be informed of their right to appeal the decision.

FINAL PAY

(Final pay policy #300.39)

Employees who are leaving WETCC employment must return any WETCC issued keys, library materials, files, and/or equipment to their immediate supervisor who will then authorize release of the final payroll check. Final pay will normally be issued during the next scheduled pay day.

Accumulated annual leave, up to a maximum of 160 hours, will be paid to the employee on their final payroll check once all WETCC property has been returned to WETCC.
