

Introduction to Weightlifting Adjunct

Course: Introduction to Weightlifting

Credits: 1

Delivery Mode: In-person

Compensation:

- $1300 per course section (before applicable withholdings and deductions).

Status: Adjunct; course assignments are contingent on enrollment, funding, and institutional needs and are not guaranteed from term to term.

Responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Deliver weekly, in-person instruction.
- Teach and model proper lifting techniques and safety protocols.
- Develop and assess student learning outcomes related to basic weight training principles, safe use of equipment, and personal fitness goal-setting.
- Maintain a safe, respectful wellness center environment and ensure proper use and care of equipment.
- Follow WETCC policies and procedures and contribute to a positive learning environment for all students.

Qualifications:

- Associate or bachelor's degree in Kinesiology, Physical Education, Exercise Science, or a closely related field
- Experience in fitness instruction, weight training, or personal training in an educational, community, or gym setting
- Current CPR and First Aid certification

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience teaching or training adult learners in a higher education or community-based setting.
- Demonstrated ability to create an inclusive, supportive learning environment.
- Familiarity with working in Native-serving or Tribal College settings or demonstrated cultural humility and willingness to learn.

Application Process

To apply, please submit:

1. A cover letter describing your interest in the position and qualifications.
2. A current curriculum vitae or résumé detailing education, licensure/certification, and relevant occupational experience.
3. Copies of relevant licenses and/or certifications (if applicable).
4. Unofficial transcripts for all relevant post-secondary education (official transcripts may be required upon offer).
5. Contact information for [two/three] professional references who can speak to your teaching and/or healthcare experience.

Applications should be submitted to:

Randi Noggle / Human Resource Specialist
hr@wetcc.edu

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled. Only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.

Cultural Commitment:

White Earth Tribal and Community College is grounded in Anishinaabe culture, values, and traditions. All employees are expected to contribute to a respectful, welcoming, and culturally grounded campus environment and to support the mission and vision of the College. Employees are encouraged to engage in opportunities to learn about and strengthen their understanding of Anishinaabe culture, values, and ways of knowing.

Equal Employment Opportunity Employer:

The White Earth Tribal & Community College in accordance with Federal law and U.S. Department of Agriculture policy, this institute is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, religion, sex, familial status, sexual orientation, and reprisal.